

Group facilitation

- ❖ Facilitation term comes from “facile” or making it easier; in the context of group, facilitation means bringing a process and a structure to a meeting, ensuring everyone gets engaged, has a chance to input, time is respected and decisions are based on the group ideas rather than on one person or the leader;
- ❖ The facilitator stays neutral and takes care of the process, rather than giving any answers or advice; here are things to watch when facilitating:
